

FIREMAN KILLED IN $300,000 BLAZE

NEWPORT CITY HALL DESTROYED BY FIRE BUT RECORDS SAVED

Fireman Hurt and Two Missing—Mayor Proves Hero of Blaze

Newport, R. I., March 24.—Newport's $300,000 city hall was destroyed by fire today. John H. Malloy, a fireman, was killed, another fireman was injured and two are missing.

Malloy, captain of an engine, was killed in a fifty foot plunge with a burning stairway into the blazing building. The floors and roofs of the city hall collapsed.

Mayor Sullivan was a hero of the fire. Hatless and coatless, he led firemen into the burning building and saved all important city records.

DOROTHY ELLINGSON WILL NOT TAKE STAND IN MATRICIDE CASE

Defense Will Endeavor To Force State To Present Only Circumstantial Evidence

San Francisco, March 24—Dorothy Ellingson will not take the stand in her own behalf.

The story of the slaying of her mother will not come from the lips of the 16 year old matricide. It was learned today. Her counsel have decided to keep her from the stand and will battle against the introduction of her confession by the state.

The defense will endeavor to force the state to present a circumstantial case. There were no witnesses to the shooting of Annie Ellingson, mother of the girl. The state will reconstruct through police testimony as far as possible the shooting in the little Fourth Avenue cottage, the flight of the girl, her betrayal by one of her male friends, her arrest and then endeavor to place in evidence against her the confession Dorothy made to police officers.

Six tentative jurors were in the box when the trial was resumed today.

STORM CHECK AGAIN CHANGES CASUALTIES

The storm-torn midwest, its eyes turned to visions of new and better cities and industries to rise from the ruins of Wednesday's tornado, pause in its work of reconstruction today to recount its dead and injured, recheck its losses and make its first accurate survey of the toll it paid to the havoc of the wind.

From this came figures showing a total of 310 dead in the five states which felt the tornado's breath. Approximately 3,000 were more or less seriously injured, although the check on these figures is admittedly not as certain as the death.

The casualty statistics are divided by states as follows:

Illinois, 636; Indiana, 109; Tennessee, 33; Kentucky, 18; Missouri, 14.

The property loss, the survey indicates, will run to $50,000,000.

WEALTHY TIFFIN MAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

Tiffin, O., March 24—Hume Gray, 48, wealthy Tiffin business man, ended his life here last night with a revolver bullet. He was stricken with paralysis five years ago and went about only with the aid of crutches.

He had just returned from Hot Springs and is said to have been discouraged that physicians were unable to better his condition.

Gray was treasurer and active head of the Gray and White Company, dealers in poultry and dairy products, with branches throughout western Ohio and in most of the large cities of the country.

He leaves a wife.

NO BIDDERS

St. Clairsville, March 25—No bids were offered for the Belmont Collieries Company's strip and drift mines at Uniontown, offered for sale by Receiver H. H. Elkins. The plant was appraised at approximately $1,000,000. It was the scene of several minor battles between striking miners and guards when the stripping mine was operated during the 1922 coal strike. One man was killed and several wounded.

HANGS HIMSELF

Moundsville, W. Va., March 24—Using his belt and a fragment of clothes line, Tony Broszokus, 28, improvised a noose and hung himself in a secluded nook in Lindsay Hill yesterday afternoon.

Began Cruelties on Honeymoon, Says Society Wife, Suing Husband

The marital affairs of Thelma Morgan Converse, twin sister of Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt, and her husband, James E. Converse, New Yorker, subject of rumors for two years, have finally reached the divorce court. Mrs. Converse is suing, charging cruelty, declaring that her husband began his ill treatment on their honeymoon. She has been appearing in motion pictures recently.

MRS. DENNISTOUN GIVEN DAMAGES OF $25,000 BY JURY IN FAMOUS CASE

Verdict Also Found Plaintiff Had Loaned Colonel Dennistoun $6,000 and That He Failed To Maintain Agreement.

London, March 24—The jury in the action of Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun against her former husband, Colonel Ian Dennistoun today awarded damages of $25,000 in return of a verdict in her favor.

This in the opinion of court observers was a clear cut victory for Mrs. Dennistoun.

The jury also found that Mrs. Dennistoun had loaned Colonel Dennistoun approximately $6,000. This was the sum Mrs. Dennistoun had sued for, alleging that she expended it for Dennistoun's club and other expenses prior to the divorce which he obtained from her to marry Lady Carnarvon.

The jury found that Colonel Ian Dennistoun made a verbal agreement to assist his former wife, Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun from time to time, providing he was in a position to do so.

In addition the jury held that Colonel Dennistoun had agreed to assist in the support of Mrs. Dennistoun to the extent that he was able when she was not in a position, to provide for herself.

Mrs. Dennistoun had sued Colonel Dennistoun for $6,000, money alleged to have been advanced by her to pay his club and other expenses prior to the divorce.

GORE WITHDRAWS APPOINTEES' NAMES

Charleston, W. Va., March 24—Governor Howard M. Gore has withdrawn from the senate a list of appointments to state offices submitted by former Governor Morgan, shortly before he relinquished the executive chair, it was learned from irrefutable sources here today.

Confirmation of the withdrawal reports was obtained by International News Service today from sources through which the request of Governor Gore to turn over to him the list of Morgan nominations, was handled.

Morgan's nominations were never made public, but it was understood at the time that they included the names of Major R. E. O'Connor as superintendent of state police, H. E. Abbott, of Grafton as state banking commissioner and John Harst, as member of state board of control.

STEAMR SINKS

Marseilles, March 24—The Spanish steamer "Gupuzida" was reported sinking today near Whale Point. The distress message received here gave no further light.

Whale Point is located on Long Island, a member of the Bahaman group in the West Indies.

MARRIED WOMEN OUT
Akron, O., March 24—Twenty per cent of the married women now teaching in Akron's schools will not be re-hired when their terms expire and no more women with husbands able to support them will be engaged. This was the burden of a resolution adopted last night by the board of education.

There now are about 200 wives teaching in Akron and the weeding out process will probably affect the least efficient.

WOMAN BURNED WHEN KITCHEN IS WRECKED BY EXPLOSION OF GAS

Mrs. E. M. Lemin Victim of Leaking Gas Connection—Others Unhurt

Mrs. E. M. Lemin, 27 Cincinnati Avenue, sustained painful burns about the head, shoulders and back when the kitchen and pantry of her home were wrecked by a gas explosion at 6:15 o'clock, Tuesday morning.

Dr. A. D. DeHaven found the woman was suffering from burns about the neck, one ear, the shoulders and back and her hair was badly scorched. The burns are not expected to prove serious. The fact that her clothing did not ignite saved her from further burns, it is believed.

Although the rear kitchen wall was blown outward, and one corner of the frame one-story residence, containing the pantry, was shattered free from the rest of the structure, the front part of the house and its occupants escaped uninjured. They included Mr. Lemin, a conductor on the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway, his sister and the Lemins' four children, Justin, Robert, Catherine and Fred. They were asleep when the blast occurred and suffered only from shock.

The explosion occurred when Mrs. Lemin struck a match to light the kitchen stove. All three doors, opening outside, onto the pantry and to an adjoining bedroom, were closed during the night and it is believed a slow leak in the gas stove connection filled the room with gas.

The interior of the kitchen and the pantry adjoining were wrecked by the force of the blast. The corner of the residence containing the pantry was blown against a shed in the rear of the house, and the rear kitchen wall was blown out so that the house caved at the corners. Windows were shattered and plastering dislodged.

The blast followed a hallway to the front of the house without damaging the bedrooms and living room. The lower hinge of the front door was blown off and weatherboarding was dislodged on the front of the house. Firemen used chemicals to extinguish a small blaze that followed the blast in the kitchen.

Loss is partly covered by insurance.

DEFENSE INNING IN TEAPOT DOME LEASE CASE IS UNDER WAY

Pomerene And Roberts Make Brilliant Arguments For Government Monday

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 24—The defense today will open its oratorical salvoes in the equity suit being heard by Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy, here in the government's effort to have declared null and void the lease turning over the Teapot Dome naval petroleum reserve to Harry F. Sinclair's Mammoth Oil Company by former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall.

John W. Lacey, the aged but alert Cheyenne attorney, representing the Sinclair interests, is expected to consume the entire day in exhaustive defense of the legality of the co-operative action of the navy and interior departments in consummating the Sinclair contract.

Many favorable comments were heard on the brilliant opening statement of the government yesterday by Senator Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, but it was noted that little stress was laid on the fraud and conspiracy charges in the government's bill.

Roberts' expose of the alleged illegality of the Sinclair contract was declared by many observers as "classic."

BROKER FILES SUIT TO RECOVER $90,000

Canton, O., March 24—John B. Bracken, Pittsburgh, broker, has filed suit here against John E. Carnahan, former owner of the Carnahan Sheet and Tin Plate Company for $90,000 for the sale of the plant to the Falcon Sheet and Tin Plate Company.

Bracken says Carnahan wished to sell 3636 shares of common and 737 shares of preferred stock, and that the plaintiff had a survey of the Canton plant made and approached several prospects, among them W. E. Thomas of Youngstown.

FARMER WILL DRAFT OWN LEGISLATIVE RELIEF PLAN SAID

Capper To Make Survey Of Agricultural West To Learn What Farmer Wants

Washington, March 24—"The American farmer will draft his own legislative relief program for the next session of congress."

With this observation, Senator Arthur Capper, Republican of Kansas, chairman of the senate farm bloc, was enroute today for the agricultural west, to ascertain at first hand just what the farmer wants from congress. He plans to consult farmers in the fields, agricultural experts and governors of farm states, but to let the farmers decide for themselves what legislation is necessary to assure agricultural prosperity.

Capper has his own ideas about a relief program. It would consist of enacting bills to foster co-operative marketing and to create an export corporation.

"I'll put in the summer attending meetings of farmers to learn what the farmer wants from congress," said Capper. "The farmer didn't get much help from the last session of congress because his organizations failed to unite in support of any single measure. It will be different in the next session because I intend to give the farmers a chance to speak for themselves."

MAN CONFERS WITH MRS. WILLEBRANDT

Washington, March 24—United States Attorney Mau, of Cincinnati, conferred today with Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, relative to the indictment by a federal grand jury at Cincinnati, of policemen for alleged violation of the liquor laws.

Mrs. Willebrandt may take charge of the prosecution personally in response to a request from Mau. Later developments in the case will determine the course to be taken by the department of justice.

CHAPMAN DIRECTS OWN DEFENSE IN TRIAL FOR MURDER OF OFFICER

NOTORIOUS ROBBER CAREFULLY GUARDED IN HARTFORD COURT

Defense Based On Alibi—Widow of Slain Policeman Opposed to Hanging.

Hartford, Conn., March 24.—Gerald Chapman, America's "master bandit," went on trial for his life today here charged with the murder of Policeman James Skelley, who blocked the escape of two safebreakers from a New Britain department store last October 12.

With all the cunning evidenced in his past spectacular career of crime, Chapman has assumed charge of his own defense in an attempt to defeat society—legally.

During weeks of solitary confinement, Chapman has reasoned out an elaborate plan of defense to offset the grim New England spirit of justice, which bids fair to condemn him to the gallows on his past record.

He has instructed counsel to protest against the "array of jurors," alleging lack of proportion in their selection. Hartford, a city of 150,000 has but two talesmen in the panel of 150, defense attorneys will contend, while the hamlet of Avon, with approximately 800 persons has provided seven talesmen.

The notorious mail robber is expected to deny the crime, and charge Walter Shean, member of a wealthy Springfield, Mass., family, and the star witness, with implicating Chapman "to save his own neck."

Possibility of rescue by friends of Chapman, is being carefully guarded against. The red brick courthouse will be surrounded with a cordon of picked marksmen. There will be a policeman to every square foot of the courtroom. Dan Ahern, "tallest cop in the world," will stand sentry at the door to the trial room.

Chapman will be brought to and from the state prison with handcuffs attaching him to a warden.

The defense expects to produce about a dozen alibi witnesses including one mysterious woman. Sixty witnesses will be presented by the state. The squad of witnesses for the state will include men and women from New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Rhode Island, Indiana, Georgia and Illinois. There will be four policemen from Muncie, Indiana, where Chapman was captured last January after almost two years freedom after his escape from Atlanta.

Deputy Warden George Hughes of Atlanta federal penitentiary and three librarians from Cincinnati, Dayton and Lima, O., will also be called.

Mrs. James Skelley, widow of the slain policeman, said today in New Britain, she did not wish to see Chapman hanged.

"My husband is dead, and hanging a man won't bring him back to me."

MICHAEL T. GRAHAM ATTEMPTS SUICIDE BY CUTTING WRISTS

Michael T. Graham, 307 Cincinnati Avenue, is in a serious condition at the McClellan Hospital, with deep gashes in both wrists, inflicted in an attempt at suicide, early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Graham has been in ill health for some time and it is thought that worry over his condition caused him to attempt to take his life. He was found on the porch of his home at midnight Monday, with blood pouring from the arteries that had been severed in both wrists. He was unconscious from loss of blood and was taken to the hospital Tuesday morning.

Dr. W. H. Finley attended Mr. Graham and tied the arteries. Due to his previous ill health and the loss of blood his condition is thought critical.

He had been employed as guard at the Greene County Infirmary, but has been unable to work for some time.

WOMAN IS BURIED IN SPRING VALLEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Emily P. Lamb, 36, who passed away at her home in Philadelphia, Pa., Friday morning, following a short illness with pneumonia, were held in Spring Valley, Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, with interment in Spring Valley Cemetery. The services were in charge of the Rev. John Walton, of the Spring Valley Church.

Mrs. Lamb formerly resided in Wilmington, and made her home in Philadelphia for the past fifteen years. She is survived by one son, Elmo, of Philadelphia.

SENATE RULES COMMITTEE WILL PASS ON DONAHEY APPOINTMENTS

May Confirm Huffman and Bloom—Last Two Appropriations Bills Scheduled For Second Reading In House.

Columbus, O., March 24—The senate rules committee today is scheduled to determine whether the four major appointments by Governor Donahey to the state utilities, tax and civil service commissions shall be confirmed. The nominations have been held up by the committee for four weeks.

There is a possibility, it was said, that the nominations of James W. Huffman, Chandererville, and of Earl D. Bloom, Bowling Green to be members of the utilities commission, might be confirmed, so the committee may be controlled by appointees of Governor Donahey and the responsibility for its acts put squarely up to the executive. The other two major appointments held in rules committee are those of William A. Hopkins, Cincinnati, to be a member of the state tax commission and

HUSBAND CONFESSES MURDERING WIFE AND THEN BURNING BODY

Says He Strangled Woman To Death At Her Request—Used Woman's Silk Kimona

Cleveland, O., March 24—A formal charge of murder will probably be placed today against Frank Liska, who last night wrote with his own hand a story describing how his wife, Catherine Liska, whose charred body was found in a flaming chicken coop in the Liska's backyard Saturday, met her death.

Liska, according to the statement made by detectives today, declared he strangled his wife at her own request, after a bitter quarrel at the family home Friday.

A filmy silk kimona was used to strangle her, the husband related, after his wife had failed in an attempt to choke herself to death.

Liska said he and his wife quarreled Friday morning over a contemplated divorce action by his wife. She ran from the house to the chicken coop. He followed. There he found his wife with the kimona tightly wrapped about her neck.

"Draw it tighter, kill me," Liska declares that his wife begged.

At first he refused. Then yielding to the woman's importunities, he pulled tightly on the garment. His wife struggled a moment. Then all was still and he went away.

That night, the confession relates, Liska fired the chicken coop, then went to bed. Later he was awakened by neighbors, who called his attention to the fire. Firemen found the charred body in the building.

Prosecutor Attorney Edward C. Stanton said today that he was not ment. He discredited the part in entirely satisfied with Liska's statement which the husband claimed that his wife first attempted suicide.

Liska was being further grilled this morning, in an attempt to secure a more complete statement before the formal charge is made.

HANDWRITING CRUX IN TRIAL OF KIRBY

Cleveland, O., March 24—The crux of the hottest legal tilt that has occurred so far in the trial of Josiah Kirby, deposed head of the Cleveland Discount Company on a charge of issuing a false financial statement, revolved today around three insignificant figures—"230"

The state claims that the figures are in the handwriting of Kirby and that the notation was his written order for the cash on hand item in the financial statement to be boosted by 220,000.

A line had been drawn through the cash item of $791,000 and the total raised to $1,011,000, evidence showed.

Defense attorneys halted two efforts of the prosecution to prove positively that the handwriting was that of Kirby. Testimony had already been introduced to show that Kirby checks totalling $220,000 had been given to the cashier with the instructions to hold.

YOMAN IS FINED

Elyria, March 24—Harry Simosko-vich, South Amherst, was given 29 days in which to raise $750 assessed by Justice S. J. George for alleged violation of the liquor laws. It is planned to place her seven children in the county children's home. Patrick McGarvey, Amherst businessman, was fined $200 by Justice S. J. George for alleged possession of liquor.

of R. W. Archer Cleveland to be a member of the civil service commission.

Lengthy sessions are scheduled when the house and senate reconvene this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Plans for a night session tonight have been abandoned by leaders because of a dinner to be given to legislative correspondents by Lieutenant Governor Lewis. The senate was expected to clear away a mass of legislation awaiting action on its calendar, but there was little hope that the long looked for final vote on the contested Buchanan Bible bill would be reached.

The rules committee has thus far failed to list the measure on the "jitters" calendar, since its passage was recommended by the school committee.

The last two appropriation bills of the session, the sundry claims bill, carrying a total of $175,000 and the second supplementary appropriation bill, carrying $200,000 were scheduled for second reading and reference in the house. The supplementary bill includes items of $35,000 for the state fair, $35,000 for prisoners compensation and $35,000 for purchase of the tri-county brick plant, at Roseville. The sundry claims bill, carries a host of small claims items, the only two large applications being $13,226 for the state's share of paving Wilmington pike, adjacent to Dayton state hospital and $26,619.50 to settle the judgment against the state obtained by the Columbus packing Company for losses in alleged unlawful seizure of the property in 1919.

Another move for a new state office building was to be considered by the legislature today. The proposal, carried in a senate resolution, provides for appointment of a committee by the lieutenant governor, selection of a site in the rear of the house and erection of a building without delay. The cost would be about $4,000,000.

The Knapp bill, providing for sterilization of the male mental defective, passed by the house without debate, was scheduled to be given second reading and reference in the senate today.

Other measures passed by the house which will be given second reading and reference in the senate today are:

By Finckel, Stark, authorizing sale of canal lands in Massillon to present occupants and cancellation of leases; by Norton, Cuyahoga, authorizing investment of bank funds in securities of foreign governments; and by Gray, Harrison exempting mortgage companies from operation of tax laws applied to banks.

The two houses will work today until a schedule for recess next Friday to April 16, when they will return for two days to act on vetoes and then adjourn until March 1, 1926, a resolution carrying this program, having been adopted in both houses.

CEDARVILLE GIRL IS REPORTED HELD

South Bend, Ind., March 24—An affidavit charging Mary Lee, 18, Cedarville, O., and Ralph Kent, 29, Huron, O., with issuing a fraudulent check probably will be filed in court here tomorrow. Prosecutor Harry Taylor announced tonight. The pair was arrested after an alleged attempt to pass a check for $35 at a department store.

APPEALS FROM FINE

Gloster, March 24—Charles Grandy, fined $1 and costs at Trimble on the charge of disturbing the peace, appealed from the verdict, claiming there is no law in Trimble to cover such offense. The costs in the case have already amounted to $30.90. Grandy claimed he was not allowed a jury trial.

LEE FOHL BUSY SHUFFLING RED SOX IN HOPE OF TURNING UP A GOOD HAND FOR SEASON

BY FRED C. LANE

New Orleans, La., March 21.—Sixteen new cards have been inserted into the deck which Lee Fohl, Red Sox manager, will shuffle so thoroughly for the next six weeks. Out of this number he hopes to get at least one ace and a possible king to "better the hand" of the lowly Red Sox.

Fohl has stated that every position on the ball club is open, yet it can be safely said that by this time the lineup for the opening game and the identity of the players who will stick are fixed in his mind.

One of them undoubtedly is Ernest Vache, with Dallas last season. He is a real hitter and it is nobody's secret that the Red Sox lacked hitting strength last year. The king is Ruddy Kallie, from the coast. His record makes him stand head and shoulders above the other pitching recruits in camp and although Ruddy is by no means a youth, he seems ready for the big time. Both Vache and Kallie appear certain of their places. The same thing applies to Dudley Lee, who played fine ball at shortstop last year until he injured a finger.

Another certainty, of course, is Howard Ehmke, the club's leading pitcher. Ira Flagstead will play one of the outfield posts regularly.

Jim Prothro, obtained from Washington, is expected to prove a better third baseman than Danny Clark, who has been shooed away to the tall timbers. Once in a hitting slump, Danny was terrible to gaze upon.

"You had to hit the flagpole in centerfield to score a run from second base," is President Bobby Quinn's way of expressing the 1924 situation.

Bill Wambsgann's job at second base is an open proposition, sure enough, with Homer Ezzell, former St. Louis Brown; Bill Regell, from Salina; Connolly from Bay City; Ewell Gross, from San Antonio and Phil Lodi, with the Sox last year in the field and hustling Joe Harris is an almost certain starter at first base and Val Piccinich is likely to catch well over a hundred games, barring injury.

The pitchers are many but not so much.

In addition to Vache, the regular outfielders will be John Collins, Flagstead, Ike Boone and possibly Dana Williams, who went on a hitting rampage when he joined the Red Sox last year.

MERCHANTS WILL BE IN FIELD AGAIN

The Xenia Merchant baseball team will again be in the field this season. The team will be managed by "Mouse" Porter who will play in the outfield. The Merchants will play most of their games at Dickerson Park the first game being in a month.

IRON MAN STUNT TO FEATURE WRESTLING SHOW AT EAGLES

BY L. J. WONES

Three wrestling bouts are scheduled for Tuesday night at the Eagles Athletic club on Whitman Street. Pete Montana, Iowa, will take on two grapplers—George Gatsoff of Massillon and "Bull" Gossard of London. The Iowa agrees to throw both in sixty minutes or he does not receive a cent for his services. This will not be a trick to do as Gatsoff last week gave Montana a hard time of it before losing and when they meet again a gruelling encounter can be looked for. As for Gossard practically every fan knows of the rough and tumble game he puts up. He is always in good condition and is strong as a bull but when he attempts to pin this one to the mat he will have to do some fast and rough grappling.

Montana is one of the veterans of the game. He has met them all both big and small. About two weeks ago he wrestled to a draw with Harry Kilonis while he has also met Jack Reynolds, the welter champ, and others. In the event that he beats both these men he will probably be given a bout with Billy Hallas or Jack Reynolds.

In the semi-final Speedy Crawford of this city will try a few grips with Kid Black of Springfield. Crawford has been going good here and in the event he can beat the Clark County boy he will be right in line for bigger and better matches. Crawford announced himself in excellent condition and also expressed confidence in his ability to score a win over Black.

Black, who has wrestled here once before, will try and make a name for himself by winning from the local grappler. Black was beaten by Kilonis a couple months ago at the Eagles but at that he gave the tough Greek champion a battle all the way. These fellows appear evenly matched and this may pan out to be the best bout on the card. The show will start at 8:30 o'clock with plenty of seats at popular prices.

NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS ARRANGE FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Mary T. Lambert and Miss Evelyn McGivern of Bellbrook Avenue were given a farewell party by a number of their neighbors and friends at the home of Mrs. Lambert, Saturday evening. Miss McGivern and her aunt are moving to an apartment on West Main Street.

A dainty luncheon was served and music and a social time enjoyed. Mrs. Lambert, who is seventy-six years of age, gave a reading, which was enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Lambert received several beautiful gifts.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Shaw and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Clois Anderson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mills, Mr. and Mrs. R. Duerstein, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Owens, Mr. and Mrs. George King and Miss Jean Nesmith of Dayton.

MR. KINGSBURY IS HOST AT SOUTHERN RESORT

Mr. R. S. Kingsbury, West Second Street, who has been spending the winter at various southern resorts, was host at a dinner recently in the Hotel Ormond. Included among his guests were Mrs. R. E. Olds, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Rousar, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Worthington, Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roe, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greiner, New York; Mrs. Bruce Anderson, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George D. Dutton, Pittsfield, Mass., and Mrs. A. J. Mooers of Lansing, Mich.

PLAN ALL-DAY MEET OF JR. H. P. T. A.

Members of the Junior High Parent-Teacher Association will hold an all-day meeting at the school next Monday, to assist in the making of costumes for the children taking part in the "Know Your School" programs. It was decided at the meeting of the association, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Hayward, vice president, presided at the meeting, and routine business was transacted.

Mrs. J. L. Dunlap will entertain the members of the Rebekah Thimble Club at her home on North King Street, Thursday afternoon. All members are asked to come prepared to knot comforts. A covered dish supper will be served at 6:30. All Rebekahs are cordially invited.

Mrs. J. S. Tull and son, James Theron, of Dayton, were guests of Mrs. Charles A. Davis, North Galloway Street, Tuesday.

Mrs. John M. Davidson entertained the Travel Club at her home on East Second Street, Monday evening.

G. A. Pillsbury, East Third Street, has been appointed by the C. A. Conn Company, nationally known makers of musical instruments, as sole agent for the Conn band instruments in Xenia. Mr. Pillsbury is president of Sowards Saxophone Band of Dayton and also leader of the Trinity M. E. Church Orchestra, this city.

Miss Helen Wike, student at Cedarville, spent the week end at her home on South Detroit Street, and had as her guest, Miss Dorothy Wilson, a college friend.

Mrs. J. D. Bradford of Bellevue, Ky., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Mackrodt, of Cincinnati Avenue.

BODIES OF MINERS ALL NOW RECOVERED

Barracksville, W. Va., March 24.—With the recovery of all 33 bodies of the men caught in the mine of Bethlehem Mines Corporation here in an explosion a week ago tonight the state investigation of the blast swung into swift action today.

The investigating committee will explore the mines workings today. The committee will also interrogate the four miners being held in the Marion county jail at Fairmont. Repeated questioning by authorities has failed to shake the men's stories that they left the mine because it was too dirty to work in.

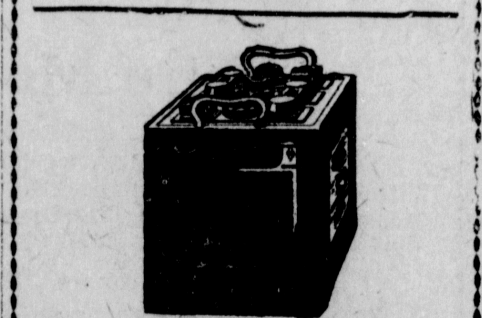

Immediately after the probe is ended a decision as to the cause of the explosion will be given, it was said today.

POLICE COURT

FOUR FINED FOR DRUNK. ## FORMER XENIA TAXI DRIVER MURDERED IN HILLSBORO; GUN USER UNDER ARREST

William Hough, 36, Jamestown, colored, former driver of the Red Star line bus between Xenia and Wilberforce and who later operated a taxi service in Xenia, died in the Hillsboro, O., Hospital, Monday morning at 12:15 o'clock, from bullet wounds inflicted by Charles Nelson, 25, colored, Hillsboro, Sunday night, in a jealous rage.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Jesse Goings, where Hough had gone to call on Mrs. Barbara Nelson, wife of the murderer. Mrs. Nelson recently entered suit for divorce from Nelson and it is thought that her friendship with Hough prompted Nelson's act.

Hough and Mrs. Nelson were fighting in the Goings home when Nelson entered without warning and fired three shots at Hough. Hough ran into another room but too late to avoid the shots fired by Nelson. The last shot, fired at close range, entered Hough's back and penetrated the lower part of the abdomen. He died a few hours later from internal hemorrhages. The shooting occurred at 9:30 Sunday night.

A relative of the Nelson's named Jackson, ran into the Goings home and took the gun, a .32 calibre revolver, away from Nelson, who made no attempt to molest his wife. He was turned over to the custody of Officers Chris Rockel and Floyd Stephens of Hillsboro, and lodged in jail.

Hough was unmarried and is survived by his father, Glenn Hough,

Jamestown and several half brothers and sisters.

Funeral services for the murder victim will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Jamestown Colored Baptist Church.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

OPEN MORTGAGES

"Open end mortgages" allow new security issues to come in through their open end until the mortgage is "full"

A mortgage is a pledge by a corporation of its property as security for money advanced. So much is fundamental and clear.

But there is more than one variety of mortgages. Some contain a clause which pledges only the property owned when the mortgage is drawn; some pledge property already owned and to be acquired in the future. (Either of these may be of the open, the open end or closed end type.)

With closed end mortgages, the loan is made (the bonds are issued) all at one time and no further bonds can be issued under that mortgage. The open end mortgage fixes the amount of the loan, or bonds, and permits the loans to be made as funds are required. When this limit is reached it becomes a closed end mortgage.

The open mortgage does not limit the amount of bonds which may be issued. Bonds, under this form of mortgage are issued as necessity requires. This type of security is becoming more and more popular in the financial world.

RUMORS OF CABINET SHAKE-UP REVIVED BUT DENIALS ISSUED

Washington, March 24.—A flock of denials followed today in the wake of revived rumors that there is shortly to be an extensive shakeup and re-alignment of President Coolidge's cabinet.

During the summer, according to the rumors, a quartet of cabinet officers, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Secretary of the Interior Work, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis and Postmaster General Harry S. New will drop out of public life for one reason or another and be supplanted by advisors of Mr. Coolidge's own choosing. All those mentioned are holdovers from the Harding administration.

There is little likelihood of any such wholesale transition, according to the White House and cabinet members themselves.

Secretary Weeks will probably resign before the summer is ended. It has been an open secret for some time that Weeks has been desirous of seeking private life. He is 68 and his health is none too good.

He told friends recently he would like to get out of public life and spend several years in world travel.

But as for the others:

"It's all news to me," said Postmaster General New.

"Likewise to me," said Secretary Davis.

Secretary Work is in Colorado but his friends were emphatic in their denials that he was to relinquish his post in the interior department, as the others.

There was a lot of good natured chaffing when the cabinet met this morning over the rumors of impending resignations which were widely published in the capital's morning papers.

Coupled with the rumors of Davis' resignation was one that had him becoming a candidate for the governorship of Pennsylvania. He is accredited to the cabinet from the Keystone state, despite the fact that a good part of his life has been spent elsewhere.

All of the cabinet members in question submitted their resignations, as a matter of routine at the outset of the new administration on March 4, and all were required to remain by President Coolidge.

Secretary Weeks compliance is tentative. He is said to have informed the president at the time that he did not wish to remain much longer, but agree to stay until the air service controversy, which was raging hotly at the time, had subsided. With the demotion of Brig. Gen. Mitchell and the adjournment of congress and the congressional investigation of aircraft conditions, this controversy has now abated and it is not improbable that Mr. Weeks will retire by June 30.

ROTARIANS' HEAR PHONE OFFICIAL

Interesting statistics on the operation of public utilities in Ohio, and an outline of the operation and financing of the Ohio Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, was given by R. G. Pate, Cleveland, assistant to the president of the Ohio Bell Company, before the Xenia Rotary Club Tuesday noon.

His talk was well received by members of the club. The address followed the club luncheon and business meeting held at the Elk's Lodge.

Miss Nina Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Clinton, is ill with scarlet fever.

TALKING ABOUT CONSISTENCY

OUT of the unearned increment of stocks and bonds in which Wall street deals and which the reds denounce, Socialist newspapers are subsidized, schools of radicalism are supported, criminals are defended and printing presses are kept grinding out red and pink propaganda that the capitalist system is the cornerstone of economic justice.

Proof is in the printed report of officers and directors of the American Fund for Public Service. Scott Nearing, formerly of Toledo, is president of the organization having the fund in charge. On the directorate also are William Z. Foster, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Robert Morss Lovett, Freda Kerkway and others whose preachments range from red revolution to the pale pink of parlor socialism.

Their fund originally was $900,000. It was donated three years ago by Charles Garland, a Massachusetts Socialist. Most of it was in the form of wisely selected stocks and bonds of great corporations.

The directors gave and loaned lavishly to editors, orators and propagandist educators some hundreds of thousands of dollars, and yet the value of their holdings now is $1,200,000, they report. They explain:

"This condition is due to a phenomenal recent rise in the market value of the chief securities constituting the fund."

Of course consistency is a virtue of small minds, and yet it seems that some subtle explanation of the policy of the reds who thrive upon, and at the same time denounce, the capitalist system may be in order.

SARGENT VS. WARREN

JOHN G. SARGENT of Vermont is attorney general of United States. Charles Beecher Warren remains plain Mr. Warren of Detroit.

Mr. Warren was devoured by the lions, borderline Republican and Democratic senators. They made a gory meal of the able Detroit attorney. They maimed their prey when Mr. Dawes happened to be absent. Upon finding that all life had not disappeared with the first attack, they bedeviled their victim without giving him a chance to defend himself. Mr. Warren must be barred from the attorney generalship because he was a corporation lawyer, even as Charles Evans Hughes and Elihu Root.

It was the trust issue and that alone that served as a pretext for the rejection of Warren.

Mr. Sargent, personally unknown, was accepted in a hurry by the senate after Mr. Warren, an able lawyer and an experienced diplomat, had been rejected.

On the attitude toward law enforcement the nominees were on a par. The Vermont nominee opposed ratification of the eighteenth amendment. Similarly, Mr. Warren was believed to have moist leanings. Once in office, either man would have been expected to attend to strict enforcement zealously.

Mr. Sargent may be handicapped by lack of experience in great affairs, but President Coolidge knows him, has assayed his worth, and with this indorsement he will undertake a tremendous task having the confidence and support of the people.

TULIPS

Bulbs I planted in the fall. Covered them, and that was all; Bitter blew the wind that day As I smoothed the bed of clay, But I whispered: "In the spring This will be a lovely thing."

Then the winter came and frowned On that little patch of ground, Covered it with ice and snow; Uglier it seemed to grow. Bleak and desolate and bare As if death itself were there.

Now the sunbeams come to toil Busily above my soil, And with sculptor's blows precise Now they chip away the ice, Melt with torch the frost and snow So that every bulb may grow.

Through the black earth I can see Beauty coming back to me, Life in blossom shall unfold, Red and pink and yellow gold! Thus my tulips in the spring Prove the faith to which I cling.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scammon, Pa. says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait until today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., R. 4, Adams, Pa., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

Quick Way to Stop Them

Persistent, racking coughing, which by rapidly weakening your entire system lays you open to more dangerous infections, can be checked often with the first dose of this old-time tried and proved remedy—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. And there's a reason. Doctors say there is nothing like pine tar to quickly loosen and remove the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing, while the honey both gives a pleasant taste and helps soothe irritation. It is often astonishing how quickly this combination relieves the stubbornest cough. But be sure you get the original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey, and no substitute. Dr. Bell's has been known for over a quarter of a century as the best. It is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine-tar, honey and other quick-acting healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—safe for spasmodic croup. If you want the best, a medicine that often relieves the severest cough overnight, make sure you get Dr. Bell's. Only $1 at any good drug store.

Miss F. H.: "How are gold and silver chains cleaned?"
Answer: Half fill a wide-mouthed bottle with warm suds of castile soap; add one teaspoon of ammonia and one heaping tablespoon of whiting. Put the chain into this, cork and shake well. Rinse the chain in clear water and dry it in jeweler's sawdust.

Puzzled: "How are glass stoppers removed from bottles when stuck fast?"
Answer: Pour a little glycerine around the neck of the stopper and let stand till the stopper will lift out easily (which stage may be reached in several hours, or in several days).

Inexperienced: "Please tell me how to launder 'tub silks'."
Answer: Make a lukewarm suds with dissolved white soap. Immerse the garment in this and cleanse by gently squeezing and lifting up and down. Do not rub. Rinse in clear, lukewarm water, making sure to get all the soap out. Press between the hands instead of wringing. Pounce.

Eminent European specialist, Dr. Ciaramelli, says, "If underweight, worn-out, or run-down, follow this advice; and watch results."

It is not what you eat or how much you eat but insufficient gland action (due to advancing years, overwork, sickness, or worry) that makes you flabby, bony, and scrawny looking. Worn out, dried up glands make it impossible to form flesh and strength. Yet many people who eat less have good firm flesh, normal weight, and are full of life and energy because their glands are now working full force. Formerly the recognized power of fresh organic glands to put on flesh that stays firm, and makes nervous, anaemic folks strong and even tempered, was confined to rich people. But now everyone who has tried doctoring with ordinary tonics and medicines can purchase a combination of pure organic glands, phosphates (for the NERVES) and iron (for the blood) for a few cents at any drug store merely asking for Kath. This Kath is known to rebuild exhausted glands without the use of drugs.

Make This Test: First weigh and measure yourself. Next take the small tablets of glands, roots and herbs (as found in Kath). Then weigh and measure yourself every 5 days and continue taking Kath until you are satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. The scientist who has discovered Kath has agreed to supply it with the understanding that if you are not completely satisfied with results the entire purchase price will be refunded by the druggist from whom you buy it.

Today's Talks

THE MULTITUDINOUS PERSONALITY

I looked at a wonderful tree today. There seemed to be something unusually distinct and interesting about every branch and leaf. I had never seen a tree like it.

I studied its beauty for a long time. The graceful winding limbs as they reached and wound their way toward the top made me think of the human being whose personality reaches out so far and seeks to warm everything about it.

It was such a silent study, too. Words would only have confused the wide and deep expression that made that tree so human and inviting.

I have noticed that the great fascination of any fine personality lies chiefly in its silent charm, its unfathomed attractions.

There are some things about all high and noble characters that are never revealed.

True greatness never belittles itself. The tiniest blue flower that specks the green grass under your feet has that something of greatness about it that can never be explained. The greatest inventor or scientist who ever lived could not reproduce it—with all his great knowledge and understanding.

And this minute flower has its own personality even though its small head can scarcely edge its way between two blades of grass.

So it is in all things of innate and animate existence. There is something strange and full of appeal to each.

And you who sometimes seem so unimportant to yourself and to the world keep absorbing as well as radiating.

I removed a wrapper from a new book today. But when I saw what a lovely design was hidden underneath, I put it back so that I might enjoy it. For each so well fitted the beauty of that which was within as the silent all of one who once wrought in noble and sweetened phrases of expression himself.

RECORD SUMMER

Martins Ferry, March 24—A record summer season is anticipated by packet lines on the Ohio river. Wharmaster A. L. Willis has been informed. He said the lines are making up their schedules for as far ahead as June and July, anticipating a favorable stage of water throughout the spring season. Freight traffic already is quite heavy with every prospect that increased express and parcel post rates will cause the quantity to increase.

POULTRY TRAIN IS FIRST TO COME HERE

The poultry train that will stop at Osborn next Tuesday, on a tour over the Erie Railroad system in Southern Ohio, is the first education train to stop in Greene County for a number of years.

Large interest is being manifested in the visit of the poultry train in the county and it is expected that between 300 and 400 people from the vicinity will attend the meeting. The train will consist of six cars, one equipped with moving pictures showing the proper method of raising chicks and two others containing all equipment for hatcheries.

Talks will be given by Luther D. Fuller, chief agricultural agent of the Erie Railroad and Professor E. L. Dakin, head poultry specialist of the Ohio State University.

Junior Cross Word Puzzle

HOW TO SOLVE PUZZLE

The words start in the numbered squares and run either across or down. Only one letter is placed in each white square. If the proper words are found each combination of letters in the white squares will form words. The key to the puzzle—the first word—is given in the drawing. Below are keys to the other words.

Running Across

Word 1. The most famous admiral in the Spanish American war.

Word 4. The poetic way of saying yonder.

Word 5. A snake-like fish.

Word 6. A number.

Running Down

Word 1. To point out the way; to order.

Word 2. A Spanish general in the war with Spain, known for his brutality.

Word 3. The nickname given New Englanders. What the southern soldiers called the northerners in the Civil war. Singular.

YESTERDAY'S JUNIOR PUZZLE ANSWER

NOT A HOUSE LEFT IN GORHAM, ILL., WOMAN IN TORNADO AREA WRITES HERE

Mrs. W. L. Miller, North Detroit Street, has received a letter from her sister, Mrs. Edward Marshall of Grand Tower, Ill., which was the center of the recent tornado, giving a graphic description of the catastrophe.

The letter reads: "Dear Sister—This has been a day of awful experience and such sights as I saw and helped. I think I will see to my dying day. The terrible cyclone crossed the river, not a quarter of a mile north of us and it fairly dipped the water out of the river until one man said you could see the bottom. It went around the bluff and hit the little town of Gorham and there is not a half dozen houses standing—the depot, concrete building and all were just leveled.

"The injured and dying were loaded on a train and sent to Cairo and the dead were piled in what was left of the station. We were the nearest, so we got all the bread in Grand Tower, forty loaves) and six pounds of coffee and Mr. Marshall and I went to Wittenberg and bought all the bread, sausage, eggs, cheese, etc., in just leveled.

RETREAT FOR MEN AT LOCAL CHURCH

WATER HIS NEMESIS

Columbus, March 24—Excessive use of water led to the arrest of Carl Smith here. Acting upon the complaint of Smith's landlady to city officials that his $40 water bill for last month was excessive, members of the police vice squad went to Smith's home where they claimed, they found three gallons of liquor and several funnels, but no still. Smith pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for March 27.

the two groceries there. The women made sandwiches and coffee and we went to Gorham by 11 o'clock. We went into every home and some accepted and some said they had plenty. Not a house was left worth mentioning. They turned the basement of the school where so many children were killed into a morgue and this morning had seventeen bodies in there. Some of the women said they would help wash the bodies for burial. I thought I would try to be brave but when I saw some of the bodies of the children, my heart failed and I worked with the food, visited all families or what was left of them and saw many so terribly injured, yet so many were so nice about it.

"We had one Red Cross unit finally from St. Louis, just two doctors and two or three trained nurses, the doctor at Gorham and two doctors from Grand Tower. Some even this morning had not received any medical attention, but more aid was to come from St. Louis. Our ice man lost seven in his family, they found three bodies while I was there today. Two freight trains were overturned, the hotel, power plant, were simply blown away, just the foundation left and the country strewn with everything from beds to houses for miles around. They have not cleared up much as yet for scarcely a family is without a death.

"When we reached Murphysboro it was something awful. The school house and high school full of children were both hit and many killed. This afternoon they had 125 on the death list and identified and with three morgues full and hospitals and large halls full of injured. The women were cooking big steamer cookers of vegetable soup in the streets. The people were asked to furnish clothing for the dead for burial."

DOG IS WAR VET

Holloway, March 24—William Gray, of this place, owns "Bing," a world-war veteran, who twice was gassed and, yet, lived to "tell the tale." "Bing," a bulldog, was born at Camp Sherman and was nine days old when he started with Gray's outfit for France. The dog's teeth show the effect of gassing. He was listed as a member of the army, his occupation being given as "a bone digger." Gray declared the dog was able to sign the payroll with an "x" by using a pen in his paws.

Relief For Women

Dr. Bowen's Prescription For Hot Flashes

If all the women who have reached the time of life often called the critical period, knew what easy and harmless relief Dr. Bowen's tablets would bring them, none would go on suffering the mental and nervous distress so often experienced during this period in the form of Hot Flashes and other symptoms.

During Dr. Bowen's lifetime he helped hundreds of women through this distressing period. On his death this famous prescription was passed to one of the most successful practicing physicians of today, who has used it for over 30 years with never failing results and who was finally induced to offer it to suffering women everywhere.

Dr. Bowen's tablets are guaranteed safe and harmless and not to interfere with the course of nature in any way. They simply relieve the distressing symptoms common to most women during this period. Get Dr. Bowen's prescription from your druggist or send $1.25 for full sized bottle. Lagonda Laboratories Company, Springfield, Ohio

MODISH MITZI—East Side, West Side, All Around the Gown By JAY V. JAY

There's no doubt about it, most styles are deceiving. The front of a gown will give you no clue as to what to expect from the rear. One has to look all ways at once to get a complete style reflection of any fashion. Fortunately for us, Mitzi is standing near a mirror which shows the irregular cape back effect of her gray wrap. The collar and the cape edges are banded with a summer fur. Polly near by wears a rep ensemble suit. It's trimmed with red leather on the collar and pockets. ("Trimnings are unusual and very gay this season.") Strips of the material trim the back and the sides. One needs a comprehensive viewpoint of the mode to realize the different directions the new styles take.

Adelaide is wearing an evening gown of white satin which shimmers under the cream lace. A cape flare of the lace hangs from the shoulders. The skirt has flounces of lace beginning at the very low waistline. Mitzi and Adelaide are privately appraising each other's new gowns. Mitzi's is most interesting, which every way you look at it. It's of two contrasting colors of georgette. The scarf which extends to Mitzi's heels can be draped around the neck in several smart ways. The back of the gown is perfectly straight. A drape is achieved in front and held by a rhinestone buckle. To appreciate these styles, you should look east side, west side, and all around the gown.

XENIANS ATTEND STROOP FUNERAL

Funeral services for William G. Strop, 64, prominent Dayton business man, and at one time general manager of the American Cigar Company Xenia Stemmery, who died Friday afternoon at his home in Dayton were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence.

Mr. Strop was instrumental in establishing the branch factory in Xenia together with P. H. Flynn Xenia shoe manufacturer, and was prominently known throughout the Miami Valley.

He first became identified with the Big Four Railroad at Gallon, and later took charge of the mill at Treblein station, three miles west of Xenia, when his family moved there. At that time he was 18 years of age.

P. H. Flynn, and Watt Frame, office manager of the Xenia Stemmery, attended the funeral services Tuesday morning.

XLV—A NEW FRIEND

AS CYNTHIA finished her supper her new-found friend turned to her.

"Now, your husband probably won't be able to see you until very late, and would just know you then and that's all," he told her. "Don't you think it would be wise for you to go to a hotel, and then come back early tomorrow morning? We can find out how he is just before you go, and you'll have no cause to worry. You must have had a long journey, and surely you need a rest."

"Well—if you think best," she answered slowly. "I wonder—could you find out for me if there's anyone else here with him—that is, anyone who has been interested. I—well, to tell you the truth, I don't know whether my mother-in-law is here or not, and I'd like to know."

"Surely. While you put on your hat and cloak I'll see his nurse and find out for you."

He returned a few moments later. "Your husband came here alone, and there has been no one inquiring for him," he told her. "He was most anxious to see you, but the doctor felt that an immediate operation was necessary. He had an attack of appendicitis, you see, and while there was no danger, Doctor Abbott didn't want to wait. Your husband wanted to wait until you came, but the nurse said that today he received a letter, and after reading it said that you wouldn't be here, and that there was no further reason for delay."

Cynthia's brow puckered in bewilderment. What letter could that be? Surely not the one in which she had written him that she wanted to leave him for Noel Gardner. He must have had that several days ago. Unless—perhaps there had been a delay—

"Oh, I wish I could see him!" she exclaimed. "But, of course, it's better to wait."

She went downstairs to the doctor, out to his car, and sat quietly while he drove her downtown and to one of the big hotels.

"I used to live here; perhaps you'd like me to make arrangements for you?" he asked. Cynthia nodded without speaking. She felt so tired that it was an effort even to think; to try to do anything for herself seemed out of the question. She was breakfasting alone in the huge dining-room the next morning when a page came to her with word that Doctor Hall was calling.

"Oh, ask him to come in here," she exclaimed. Even after their brief acquaintance of the night before he seemed an old friend.

"I came to see if I couldn't drive you up to the hospital," he told her. "But don't hurry through your breakfast. I'll have some coffee with you if I may."

Cynthia was glad to have him there. He talked to her of the beauties of San Francisco, as eager in his praise of his native city as most Californians are, and although she was thinking of Jim rather than of what the doctor was saying she managed to seem attentive at least.

She was surprised at her own feeling about Jim. She had thought she loved him, and then that she didn't. She had thought she loved

Noel Gardner. But this new emotion was quite different from the others. The thought that she might have lost Jim had kept her awake all night. Without Jim life would be a great blank space, having no reason.

She had considered leaving Jim when she thought that he no longer cared for her. But she knew not that in her heart she had never really faced that possibility. She had never thought that she would have to go through life without him.

"Oh, are you sure he's going to get along all right?" she cried, breaking into the middle of one of Doctor Hall's sentences. Then, guiltily: "My husband, I mean. I can't help being worried about him."

"Absolutely, unless there have been unexpected developments. He'll be wretched for a few days, of course, but then he'll feel fine. You're in a hurry to get to him, aren't you? All right, let's start."

Cynthia tried to be good company as they rode along, but her thoughts were all with Jim. What letter had he received that made him think she was not coming to San Francisco in response to his telegram? And how could she convince him that she didn't want to leave him?

Tomorrow—Out of the Past.

WHAT'S YOUR HEALTH WORTH?

—and the health of your family? It's priceless. Yet, many housewives run the risk of serving heavy, indigestible bakings that are the result of an unreliable brand of baking powder. It's the costliest economy anyone ever practiced. And you are not even saving money on baking powder itself, because possesses such great leavening strength that each spoonful goes farther than a similar quantity of many other brands. In the big Calumet Factories—the largest of their kind on earth—every ingredient is put to a severe laboratory test—every fresh output of baking powder is put to actual baking tests. This accounts for Calumet's great uniformity—its unflinching success.

FIREMAN KILLED IN $300,000 BLAZE

NEWPORT CITY HALL DESTROYED BY FIRE BUT RECORDS SAVED

Fireman Hurt and Two Missing—Mayor Proyes Hero of Blaze

Newport, R. I., March 24.—Newport's $300,000 city hall was destroyed by fire today. John H. Malloy, a fireman, was killed, another fireman was injured and two are missing.

Malloy, captain of an engine, was killed in a fifty foot plunge with a burning stairway into the blazing building. The floors and roofs of the city hall collapsed.

Mayor Sullivan was a hero of the fire. Hatless and coatless, he led firemen into the burning building and saved all important city records.

DOROTHY ELLINGSON WILL NOT TAKE STAND IN MATRICIDE CASE

Defense Will Endeavor To Force State To Present Only Circumstantial Evidence

San Francisco, March 24.—Dorothy Ellingson will not take the stand in her own behalf.

The story of the slaying of her mother will not come from the lips of the 16 year old matricide, it was learned today. Her counsel have decided to keep her from the stand and will battle against the introduction of her confession by the state.

The defense will endeavor to force the state to present a circumstantial case. There were no witnesses to the shooting of Annie Ellingson, mother of the girl. The state will reconstruct through police testimony as far as possible the shooting in the little Fourth Avenue cottage, the flight of the girl, her betrayal by one of her male friends, her arrest and then endeavor to place in evidence against her the confession Dorothy made to police officers.

Six tentative jurors were in the box when the trial was resumed today.

STORM CHECK AGAIN CHANGES CASUALTIES

The storm-torn midwest, its eyes turned to visions of now and better cities and industries to rise from the ruins of Wednesday's tornado, pause in its work of reconstruction today to recount its dead and injured, reccheck its losses and make its first accurate survey of the toll it paid to the havoc of the wind.

From this came figures showing a total of 810 dead in the five states which felt the tornado's breath. Approximately 3,000 were more or less seriously injured, although the check on these figures is admittedly not as certain as the death.

The casualty statistics are divided by states as follows:
Illinois, 636; Indiana, 109; Tennessee, 33; Kentucky, 18; Missouri, 14.

The property loss, the survey indicates, will run to $50,000,000.

WEALTHY TIFFIN MAN COMMITTS SUICIDE

Tiffin, O., March 24.—Hume Gray, 48, wealthy Tiffin business man, ended his life here last night with a revolver bullet. He was stricken with paralysis five years ago and went about only with the aid of crutches.

He had just returned from Hot Springs and is said to have been discouraged that physicians were unable to better his condition.

Gray was treasurer and active head of the Gray and White Company, dealers in poultry and dairy products, with branches throughout western Ohio and in most of the large cities of the country.

He leaves a wife.

NO BIDDERS

St. Clairsville, March 25.—No bids were offered for the Belmont Collieries Company's strip and drift mines at Uniontown, offered for sale by Receiver H. H. Elkins. The plant was appraised at approximately $1,000,000. It was the scene of several minor battles between striking miners and guards when the stripping mine was operated during the 1922 coal strike. One man was killed and several wounded.

Began Cruelties on Honeymoon, Says Society Wife, Suing Husband

The marital affairs of Thelma Morgan Converse, twin sister of Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt, and her husband, James E. Converse, New Yorker, subject of rumors for two years, have finally reached the divorce court. Mrs. Converse is suing, charging cruelty, declaring that her husband began his ill treatment on their honeymoon. She has been appearing in motion pictures recently.

MRS. DENNISTOUN GIVEN DAMAGES OF $25,000 BY JURY IN FAMOUS CASE

Verdict Also Found Plaintiff Had Loaned Colonel Dennistoun $6,000 and That He Failed To Maintain Agreement.

London, March 24.—The jury in the action of Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun against her former husband, Colonel Ian Dennistoun today awarded damages of $25,000 in returning a verdict in her favor.

This in the opinion of court observers was a clear cut victory for Mrs. Dennistoun.

The jury also found that Mrs. Dennistoun had loaned Colonel Dennistoun approximately $6,000. This was the sum Mrs. Dennistoun had sued for, alleging that she expended it for Dennistoun's club and other expenses prior to the divorce which he obtained from her to marry Lady Carnarvon.

The jury found that Colonel Ian Dennistoun made a verbal agreement to assist his former wife, Mrs. Dorothy Dennistoun from time to time, providing he was in a position to do so.

The jury found further that the agreement was not maintained by Colonel Dennistoun.

In addition the jury held that Colonel Dennistoun had agreed to assist in the support of Mrs. Dennistoun to the extent that he was able when she was not in a position, to provide for herself.

Mrs. Dennistoun had sued Colonel Dennistoun for $6,000, money alleged to have been advanced by her to pay his club and other expenses prior to the divorce.

GORE WITHDRAWS APPOINTEES' NAMES

Charleston, W. Va., March 24.—Governor Howard M. Gore has withdrawn from the senate a list of appointments to state offices submitted by former Governor Morgan, shortly before he relinquished the executive chair, it was learned from irrefutable sources here today.

Confirmation of the withdrawal reports was obtained by International News Service today from sources through which the request of Governor Gore to turn over to him the list of Morgan nominations, was handled.

Morgan's nominations were never made public, but it was understood at the time that they included the names of Major R. E. O'Connor as superintendent of state police, H. E. Abbott, of Grafton as state banking commissioner and John Harst, as member of state board of control.

STEAMR SINKS

Marseilles, March 24.—The Spanish steamer "Guipuzcoa" was reported sinking today near Whale Point. The distress message received here gave no further light.

Whale Point is located on Long Island, a member of the Bahaman group in the West Indies.

MARRIED WOMEN OUT
Akron, O., March 24.—Twenty per cent of the married women now teaching in Akron's schools will not be re-hired when their terms expire and no more women with husbands able to support them will be engaged. This was the burden of a resolution adopted last night by the board of education.

WOMAN BURNED WHEN KITCHEN IS WRECKED BY EXPLOSION OF GAS

Mrs. E. M. Lemin Victim of Leaking Gas Connection—Others Unhurt

Mrs. E. M. Lemin, 27 Cincinnati Avenue, sustained painful burns about the head, shoulders and back when the kitchen and pantry of her home were wrecked by a gas explosion at 6:15 o'clock, Tuesday morning.

Dr. A. D. DeHaven found the woman was suffering from burns about the neck, one ear, the shoulders and back and her hair was badly scorched. The burns are not expected to prove serious. The fact that her clothing did not ignite saved her from further burns, it is believed.

Although the rear kitchen wall was blown outward, and one corner of the frame one-story residence, containing the pantry, was shattered free from the rest of the structure, the front part of the house and its occupants escaped uninjured. They included Mr. Lemin, a conductor on the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway, his sister and the Lemins' four children, Justin, Robert, Catherine and Fred. They were asleep when the blast occurred and suffered only from shock.

The explosion occurred when Mrs. Lemin struck a match to light the kitchen stove. All three doors, opening outside, onto the pantry and to an adjoining bedroom, were closed during the night and it is believed a slow leak in the gas stove connection filled the room with gas.

The interior of the kitchen and the pantry adjoining were wrecked by the force of the blast. The corner of the residence containing the pantry was blown against a shed in the rear of the house, and the rear kitchen wall was blown out so that the house caved at the corners. Windows were shattered and plastering dislodged.

The blast followed a hallway to the front of the house without damaging the bedrooms and living room. The lower ledge of the front door was blown off and weatherboarding was dislodged on the front of the house. Firemen used chemicals to extinguish a small blaze that followed the blast in the kitchen.

Loss is partly covered by insurance.

DEFENSE INNING IN TEAPOT DOME LEASE CASE IS UNDER WAY

Pomerene and Roberts Make Brilliant Arguments For Government Monday

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 24.—The defense today will open its oratorical salvoes in the equity suit being heard by Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy, here in the government's effort to have declared null and void the lease turning over the Teapot Dome naval petroleum reserve to Harry F. Sinclair's Mammoth Oil Company by former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall.

John W. Lacey, the aged but alert Cheyenne attorney, representing the Sinclair interests, is expected to consume the entire day in exhaustive defense of the legality of the co-operative action of the navy and interior departments in consummating the Sinclair contract.

Many favorable comments were heard on the brilliant opening statement of the government yesterday by Senator Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, but it was noted that little stress was laid on the fraud and conspiracy charges in the government's bill.

Roberts' expose of the alleged illegality of the Sinclair contract was declared by many observers as "classic."

BROKER FILES SUIT TO RECOVER $90,000

Canton, O., March 24.—John B. Bracken, Pittsburgh broker, has filed suit here against John E. Carnahan, former owner of the Carnahan Sheet and Tin Plate Company for $90,000 for the sale of the plant to the Falcon Sheet and Tin Plate Company.

Bracken says Carnahan wished to sell 2686 shares of common and 737 shares of preferred stock, and that the plaintiff had a survey of the Canton plant made and approached several prospects, among them W. E. Thomas of Youngstown.

His option expired and Carnahan refused to renew it, but Bracken alleges Carnahan agreed to pay him $90,000 commission if the stock was sold to a purchaser produced by Bracken. The stock was sold to Thomas and his associates and now Bracken demands his commission and interest from time of sale.

CHAPMAN DIRECTS OWN DEFENSE IN TRIAL FOR MURDER OF OFFICER

NOTORIOUS ROBBER CAREFULLY GUARDED IN HARTFORD COURT

Defense Based On Alibi—Widow of Slain Policeman Opposed to Hanging.

Hartford, Conn., March 24.—Gerald Chapman, America's "master bandit," went on trial for his life today here charged with the murder of Policeman James Skelley, who blocked the escape of two safebreakers from a New Britain department store last October 12.

With all the cunning evidenced in his past spectacular career of crime, Chapman has assumed charge of his own defense in an attempt to defeat society—legally.

During weeks of solitary confinement, Chapman has reasoned out an elaborate plan of defense to offset the grim New England spirit of justice, which bids fair to condemn him to the gallows on his past record.

He has instructed counsel to protest against the "array of jurors," alleging lack of proportion in their selection. Hartford, a city of 150,000 has but two talesmen in the panel of 150, defense lawyers will contend, while the hamlet of Avon, with approximately 800 persons has provided seven talesmen.

The notorious mail robber is expected to deny he was in New Britain at the time of the alleged crime, and charge Walter Shean, member of a wealthy Springfield, Mass., family, and the star witness, with implicating Chapman "to save his own neck."

Possibility of rescue by friends of Chapman, is being carefully guarded against. The red brick courthouse will be surrounded with a cordon of picked marksmen. There will be a policeman to every square foot of the courtroom. Dan Ahern, "tallest cop in the world," will stand sentry at the door to the trial room.

Chapman will be brought to and from the state prison with handcuffs attaching him to a warden.

The defense expects to produce about a dozen alibi witnesses including one mysterious woman. Sixty witnesses will be presented by the state. The squad of witnesses for the state will include men and women from New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Rhode Island, Indiana, Georgia and Illinois. There will be four policemen from Muncie, Indiana, where Chapman was captured last January after almost two years freedom after his escape from Atlanta.

Deputy Warden George Hughes of Atlanta federal penitentiary and three librarians from Cincinnati, Dayton and Lima, O., will also be called.

Mrs. James Skelley, widow of the slain policeman, said today in New Britain, she did not wish to see Chapman hanged.

"My husband is dead, and hanging a man won't bring him back to me."

MICHAEL T. GRAHAM ATTEMPTS SUICIDE BY CUTTING WRISTS

Michael T. Graham, 307 Cincinnati Avenue, is in a serious condition at the McClellan Hospital, with deep gashes in both wrists, inflicted in an attempt at suicide, early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Graham has been in ill health for some time and it is thought that worry over his condition caused him to attempt to take his life. He was found on the porch of his home at midnight Monday, with blood pouring from the arteries that had been severed in both wrists. He was unconscious from loss of blood and was taken to the hospital Tuesday morning.

Dr. W. H. Finley attended Mr. Graham and tied the arteries. Due to his previous ill health and the loss of blood his condition is thought critical.

He had been employed as guard at the Greene County Infirmary, but has been unable to work for some time.

MAN CONFERS WITH MRS. WILLEBRANDT

Washington, March 24.—United States Attorney Mau, of Cincinnati, conferred today with Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, relative to the indictment by a federal grand jury at Cincinnati, of policemen for alleged violation of the liquor laws.

Mrs. Willebrandt may take charge of the prosecution personally in response to a request from Mau. Later developments in the case will determine the course to be taken by the department of justice.

SENATE RULES COMMITTEE WILL PASS ON DONAHEY APPOINTMENTS

May Confirm Huffman and Bloom—Last Two Appropriations Bills Scheduled For Second Reading In House.

Columbus, O., March 24.—The senate rules committee today is scheduled to determine whether the four major appointments by Governor Donahey to the state utilities, tax and civil service commissions shall be confirmed. The nominations have been held up by the committee for four weeks.

There is a possibility, it was said, that the nominations of James W. Huffman, Chandlerville, and of Earl D. Bloom, Bowling Green to be members of the utilities commission, might be confirmed, so the commission may be controlled by appointees of Governor Donahey and the responsibility for its acts put squarely up to the executive. The other two major appointments held in rules committee are those of William A. Hopkins, Cincinnati, to be a member of the state tax commission and of R. W. Archer Cleveland to be a member of the civil service commission.

Lengthy sessions are scheduled when the house and senate reconvene this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Plans for a night session tonight have been abandoned by leaders because of a dinner to be given to legislative correspondents by Lieutenant Governor Lewis. The senate was expected to clear away a mass of legislation awaiting action on its calendars but there was little hope that the long looked for final vote on the contested Buchanan Bible bill would be reached.

The rules committee has thus far failed to list the measure on the "jitters" calendar, since its passage was recommended by the school committee.

The last two appropriation bills of the session, the sundry claims bill, carrying a total of $175,000 and the second supplementary appropriation bill, carrying $200,000 were scheduled for second reading and reference in the house. The supplementary bill includes items of $35,000 for the state fair, $35,000 for prisoners compensation and $35,000 for purchase of the tri-county brick plant at Roseville.

The sundry claims bill, carries a host of small claims items, the only two large applications being $18,226 for the state's share of paving Wilmington pike, adjacent to Dayton state hospital and $26,619.50 to settle the judgement against the state obtained by the Columbus packing Company for losses in alleged unlawful seizure of the property in 1919.

Another move for a new state office building was to be considered by the legislature today. The proposal, carried in a senate resolution, provides for appointment of a committee by the lieutenant governor, selection of a site in the rear of the house and erection of a building without delay. The cost would be about $4,000,000.

The Knapp bill, providing for sterilization of the male mental defectives, passed by the house without debate, was scheduled to be given second reading and reference in the senate today.

Other measures passed by the house which will be given second reading and reference in the senate today are:
By Finerock Stark, authorizing sale of canal lands in Massillon to present occupants and cancellation of leases; by Norton, Cuyahoga, authorizing investment of bank funds in securities of foreign governments; and by Gray, Harrison exempting mortgage companies from operation of tax laws applied to banks.

The two houses will work today until a schedule for recess next Friday to April 16, when they will return for two days to act on vetoes and then adjourn until March 1, 1926, a resolution carrying this program, having been adopted in both houses.

CEDARVILLE GIRL IS REPORTED HELD

South Bend, Ind., March 24.—An affidavit charging Mary Lee, 13, Cedarville, O., and Ralph Kent, 29, Huron, O., with issuing a fraudulent check probably will be filed in court here tomorrow. Prosecutor Harry Taylor announced tonight. The pair was arrested after an alleged attempt to pass a check for $35 at a department store.

APPEALS FROM FINE

Gloster, March 24.—Charles Grandy, fined $1 and costs at Trimble on the charge of disturbing the peace, appealed from the verdict, claiming there is no law in Trimble to cover such offense. The costs in the case have already amounted to $30.90. Grandy claimed he was not allowed a jury trial.

YOMAN IS FINED

Elyria, March 24.—Harry Simosovich, South Amherst, was given 29 days in which to raise $750 assessed by Justice S. J. George for alleged violation of the liquor laws. It is planned to place her seven children in the county children's home. Patrick McGarvey, Amherst businessman, was fined $200 by Justice S. J. George for alleged possession of liquor.

LEE FOHL BUSY SHUFFLING RED SOX IN HOPE OF TURNING UP A GOOD HAND FOR SEASON

BY FRED C. LANE

New Orleans, La., March 21—Sixteen new cards have been inserted into the deck which Lee Fohl, Red Sox manager, will shuffle so thoroughly for the next six weeks. Out of this number he hopes to get at least one ace and a possible king to "better the hand" of the lowly Red Sox.

Fohl has stated that every position on the ball club is open, yet it can be safely said that by this time the lineup for the opening game and the identity of the players who will stick are fixed in his mind.

One of them undoubtedly is Ernest Vache, with Dallas last season. He is a real hitter and it is nobody's secret that the Red Sox lacked hitting strength last year. The king is Ruddy Kallie, from the coast. His record makes him stand head and shoulders above the other pitching recruits in camp and although he is by no means a youth, he seems ready for the big time. Both Vache and Kallie appear certain of their places. The same thing applies to Dudley Lee, who played fine ball at shortstop last year until he injured a finger.

Another certainty, of course, is Howard Ehmke, the club's leading pitcher. Ira Flagstead will play one of the outfield posts regularly.

IRON MAN STUNT TO FEATURE WRESTLING SHOW AT EAGLES

BY L. J. WONES

Three wrestling bouts are scheduled for Tuesday night at the Eagles Athletic club on Whiteman Street. Pete Montana, Iowa, will take on two grapplers—George Gatsoff of Massillon and "Bull" Gossard of London. The Iowa agrees to throw both in sixty minutes or he does not receive a cent for his services. This will not be a trick to do as Gatsoff last week gave Montana a hard time of it before losing and when they meet again a gruelling encounter can be looked for. As for Gossard practically every fan knows of the rough and tumble game he puts up. He is always in good condition and is strong as a bull but when he attempts to pin this one to the mat he will have to do some fast and rough grappling.

Montana is one of the veterans of the game. He has met them all both big and small. About two weeks ago he wrestled to a draw with Harry Kilonis while he has also met Jack Reynolds, the welter champ, and others. In the event that he beats both these men he will probably be given a bout with Billy Hallas or Jack Reynolds.

In the semi-final Speedy Crawford of this city will try a few grips with Kid Black of Springfield. Crawford has been going good here and in the event he can beat the Clark County boy he will be right in line for bigger and better matches. Crawford announced himself in excellent condition and also expressed confidence in his ability to score a win over Black.

Black, who has wrestled here once before, will try and make a name for himself by winning from the local grappler. Black was beaten by Kilonis a couple months ago at the Eagles but at that he gave the tough Greek champion a battle all the way. These fellows appear evenly matched and this may pan out to be the best bout on the card. The show will start at 8:30 o'clock with plenty of seats at popular prices.

Jim Prothero, obtained from Washington, is expected to prove a better third baseman than Danny Clark, who has been shoed away to the tall timbers. Once in a hitting slump, Danny was terrible to gaze upon.

"You had to hit the flagpole in centerfield to score a run from second base," is President Bobby Quinn's way of expressing the 1924 situation.

Bill Wambegann's job at second base is an open proposition, sure enough, with Homer Ezzell, former St. Louis Brown; Bill Regell, from Salina; Connolly from Bay City; Ewell Gross, from San Antonio and Phil Lodi, with the Sox last year in the field and hustling. Joe Harris is an almost certain starter at first base and Val Piccinich is likely to catch well over a hundred games, barring injury.

The pitchers are many but not so much. In addition to Vache, the regular outfielders will be John Collins, Flagstead, Ike Boone and possibly Dana Williams, who went on a hitting rampage when he joined the Red Sox last year.

MERCHANTS WILL BE IN FIELD AGAIN

The Xenia Merchant baseball team will again be in the field this season. The team will be managed by "Mouse" Porter who will play in the outfield. The Merchants will play most of their games at Dickerson Park the first game being in a month.

NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS ARRANGE FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Mary T. Lambert and Miss Evelyn McGiven of Bellbrook Avenue were given a farewell party by a number of their neighbors and friends at the home of Mrs. Lambert, Saturday evening. Miss McGiven and her aunt are moving to an apartment on West Main Street.

A dainty luncheon was served and music and a social time enjoyed. Mrs. Lambert, who is seventy-five years of age, gave a reading, which was enjoyed by the guests. Mrs. Lambert received several beautiful gifts.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Shaw and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Clois Anderson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mills, Mr. and Mrs. R. Duerrstein, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Owens, Mr. and Mrs. George King and Miss Jean Nesmith of Dayton.

MR. KINGSBURY IS HOST AT SOUTHERN RESORT

Mr. R. S. Kingsbury, West Second Street, who has been spending the winter at various southern resorts, was host at a dinner recently in the Hotel Ormond. Included among his guests were Mrs. R. E. Olds, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Rouser, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Worthington, Springfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greiner, New York; Mrs. Bruce Anderson, Lansing, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George D. Dutton, Pittsfield, Mass., and Mrs. A. J. Mooers of Lansing, Mich.

PLAN ALL-DAY MEET OF JR. H. P. T. A.

Members of the Junior High Parent-Teacher Association will hold an all-day meeting at the school next Monday, to assist in the making of costumes for the children taking part in the "Know Your Schools" program. It was decided at the meeting of the association, Monday afternoon, that Mrs. Roy Hayward, vice president, preside at the meeting, and routine business was transacted.

Mrs. J. L. Dunlap will entertain the members of the Rebekah Thimble Club at her home on North King Street, Thursday afternoon. All members are asked to come prepared to knot comforts. A covered dish supper will be served at 6:30. All Rebekahs are cordially invited.

Mrs. J. S. Tull and son, James Thorne of Dayton, were guests of Mrs. Charles A. Davis, North Galloway Street, Tuesday.

Mrs. John M. Davidson entertained The Travel Club at her home on East Second Street, Monday evening.

G. A. Pillsbury, East Third Street, has been appointed by the C. A. Conn Company, nationally known makers of musical instruments, as sole agent for the Conn band instruments in Xenia. Mr. Pillsbury is president of Sowards Saxophone Band of Dayton and also leader of the Trinity M. E. Church Orchestra, this city.

Miss Helen Wike, student at Cedarville College, spent the week end at her home on South Detroit Street, and had as her guest, Miss Dorothy Wilson, a college friend.

Mrs. J. D. Bradford of Bellevue, Ky., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Mackrodt, of Cincinnati Avenue.

FORMER XENIA TAXI DRIVER MURDERED IN HILLSBORO; GUN USER UNDER ARREST

William Hough, 36, Jamestown, colored, former driver of the Red Star line bus between Xenia and Wilberforce and who later operated a taxi service in Xenia, died in the Hillsboro, O., Hospital, Monday morning at 12:15 o'clock, from bullet wounds inflicted by Charles Nelson, 25, colored, Hillsboro, Sunday night, in a jealous rage.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Jesse Goings, where Hough had gone to call on Mrs. Barbara Nelson, wife of the murderer. Mrs. Nelson recently entered suit for divorce from Nelson and it is thought that her friendliness with Hough prompted Nelson's act.

Hough and Mrs. Nelson were sitting in the Goings home when Nelson entered without warning and fired three shots at Hough. Hough ran into another room but too late to avoid the shots fired by Nelson. The last shot, fired at close range, entered Hough's back and penetrated the lower part of the abdomen. He died a few hours later from internal hemorrhages. The shooting occurred at 9:30 Sunday night.

A relative of the Nelson's named Jackson, ran into the Goings home and took the gun, a .32 calibre revolver, away from Nelson, who made no attempt to molest his wife. He was turned over to the custody of Officers Chris Rockel and Floyd Stephens of Hillsboro, and lodged in jail.

Hough was unmarried and is survived by his father, Glenn Hough,

Jamestown and several half brothers and sisters.

Funeral services for the murder victim will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Jamestown Colored Baptist Church.

MONEY AT WORK

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

OPEN MORTGAGES

"Open end mortgages" allow new security issues to come in through their open end until the mortgage is "full".

A mortgage is a pledge by a corporation of its property as security for money advanced. So much is fundamental and clear.

But there is more than one variety of mortgages. Some contain a clause which pledges only the property owned when the mortgage is drawn; some pledge property already owned and to be acquired in the future. (Either of these may be of the open, the open end or closed end type.)

With closed end mortgages, the loan is made (the bonds are issued) all at one time and no further bonds can be issued under that mortgage. The open end mortgage fixes the amount of the loan, or bonds, and permits the loans to be made as funds are required. When this limit is reached it becomes a closed end mortgage.

The open mortgage does not limit the amount of bonds which may be issued. Bonds, under this method, are issued as needed.

RUMORS OF CABINET SHAKE-UP REVIVED BUT DENIALS ISSUED

Washington, March 24.—A flock of denials followed today in the wake of revived rumors that there is shortly to be an extensive shakeup and realignment of President Coolidge's cabinet.

During the summer, according to the rumors, a quartet of cabinet officers, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Secretary of the Interior W. Weeks, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis and Postmaster General Harry S. New will drop out of public life for one reason or another and be supplanted by advisors of Mr. Coolidge's own choosing. All those mentioned are holdovers from the Harding administration.

There is little likelihood of any such wholesale transition, according to the White House and cabinet members themselves.

Secretary Weeks will probably resign before the summer is ended. It has been an open secret for some time that Weeks has been desirous of seeking private life. He is 68 and his health is none too good.

He told friends recently he would like to get out of public life and spend several years in world travel.

But as for the others: "It's all news to me," said Postmaster General New.

"Likewise to me," said Secretary Davis.

Secretary Work is in Colorado but his friends were emphatic in their denials that he was to relinquish his post in the interior department, as the others.

There was a lot of good natured chaffing when the cabinet met this morning over the rumors of impending resignations which were widely published in the capital's morning papers.

Coupled with the rumors of Davis' resignation was one that had him becoming a candidate for the governorship of Pennsylvania. He is accredited to the cabinet from the Keystone state, despite the fact that a good part of his life has been spent elsewhere.

All of the cabinet members in question submitted their resignations, as a matter of routine, at the outset of the new administration on March 4, and all were required to remain by President Coolidge.

Secretary Weeks compliance is tentative. He is said to have informed the president at the time that he did not wish to remain much longer, but agree to stay until the air service controversy, which was raging hotly at the time, had subsided. With the adjournment of congress and the congressional investigation of aircraft conditions, this controversy has now abated and it is not improbable that Mr. Weeks will retire by June 30.

TALKING ABOUT CONSISTENCY

OUT of the unearned increment of stocks and bonds in which Wall street deals and which the reds denounce, Socialist newspapers are subsidized, schools of radicalism are supported, criminals are defended and printing presses are kept grinding out red and pink propaganda that the capitalist system is the cornerstone of economic injustice.

Proof is in the printed report of officers and directors of the American Fund for Public Service. Scott Nearing, formerly of Toledo, is president of the organization having the fund in charge. On the directorate also are William Z. Foster, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Robert Morss Lovett, Freda Kerchway and others whose preachments range from red revolution to the pale pink of parlor socialism.

Their fund originally was $900,000. It was donated three years ago by Charles Garland, a Massachusetts Socialist. Most of it was in the form of wisely selected stocks and bonds of great corporations.

The directors gave and loaned lavishly to editors, orators and propagandist educators some hundreds of thousands of dollars, and yet the value of their holdings now is $1,200,000, they report. They explain:

"This condition is due to a phenomenal recent rise in the market value of the chief securities constituting the fund."

Of course consistency is a virtue of small minds, and yet it seems that some subtle explanation of the policy of the reds who thrive upon, and at the same time denounce, the capitalist system may be in order.

SARGENT VS. WARREN

JOHN G. SARGENT of Vermont is attorney general of United States. Charles Beecher Warren remains plain Mr. Warren of Detroit.

Mr. Warren was devoured by the lions, borderline Republican and Democratic senators. They made a gory meal of the able Detroit attorney. They maimed their prey when Mr. Daves happened to be absent. Upon finding that all life had not disappeared with the first attack, they bedeviled their victim without giving him a chance to defend himself. Mr. Warren must be barred from the attorney generalship because he was a corporation lawyer, even as Charles Evans Hughes and Elihu Root.

It was the trust issue and that alone that served as a pretext for the rejection of Warren.

Mr. Sargent, personally unknown, was accepted in a hurry by the senate after Mr. Warren, an able lawyer and an experienced diplomat, had been rejected.

On the attitude toward law enforcement the nominees were on a par. The Vermont nominee opposed ratification of the eighteenth amendment. Similarly, Mr. Warren was believed to have moist leanings. Once in office, either man would have been expected to attend to strict enforcement zealously.

Mr. Sargent may be handicapped by lack of experience in great affairs, but President Coolidge knows him, has assayed his worth, and with this indorsement he will undertake a tremendous task having the confidence and support of the people.

TULIPS

Bulbs I planted in the fall.
Covered them, and that was all;
Bitter blew the wind that day
As I smoothed the bed of clay,
But I whispered: "In the spring
This will be a lovely thing."

Then the winter came and frowned
On that little patch of ground,
Covered it with ice and snow;
Uglier it seemed to grow,
Bleak and desolate and bare
As if death itself were there.

Now the sunbeams come to toil
Busily above my soil,
And with sculptor's blows precise
Now they chip away the ice,
Melt with torch the frost and snow
So that every bulb may grow.

Through the black earth I can see
Beauty coming back to me,
Life in blossom shall unfold,
Red and pink and yellow gold!
Thus my tulips in the spring
Prove the faith to which I cling.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have before. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. G. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first child I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had no trouble at all. I was not very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., 244 E. Atlantic, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

COUGHS

Quick Way to Stop Them

Persistent, racking coughing, which by rapidly weakening your entire system lays you open to more dangerous infections, can be checked off with the first dose of that old-time tried and proved remedy—Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. And there's a reason. Doctors say there is nothing like pine-tar to quickly loosen and remove the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing, while the honey both gives a pleasant taste and helps soothe irritation. It is often astonishing how quickly this combination relieves the stubbornest cough.

But be sure you get the original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey, and no substitute. Dr. Bell's has been known for over a quarter of a century as the best. It is scientifically compounded of just the right proportions of pine-tar, honey and other quick-acting healing ingredients which the best doctors have found to aid in quick relief. Contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, so can be given even to young children—fine for spasmodic croup. If you want the best, a medicine that often relieves the severest cough overnight, make sure you get Dr. Bell's. Only 30c at any good drug store.

Miss F. H.: "How are gold and silver chains cleaned?"

Answer: Half fill a wide-mouthed bottle with warm suds of caustic soap; add one teaspoon of ammonia and one heaping tablespoon of whiting. Put the chain into this, cork and shake well. Rinse the chain in clear water and dry it in jeweler's sawdust.

Puzzled: "How are glass stoppers removed from bottles when stuck fast?"

Answer: Pour a little glycerine around the neck of the stopper and let stand till the stopper will lift out easily (which stage may be reached in several hours, or in several days).

Inexperienced: "Please tell me how to launder 'tub silks'."

Answer: Make a lukewarm suds with dissolved white soap. Immerse the garment in this and cleanse by gently squeezing and lifting up and down. Do not rub. Rinse in clear, lukewarm water, making sure to get all the soap out. Press between the hands instead of wringing. Pounce.

Eminent European specialist, Dr. Ciaramelli, says, "If underweight, worn-out, or run-down, follow this advice; and watch results."

It is not what you eat or how much you eat but insufficient gland action (due to advancing years, overwork, sickness, or worry) that makes you flabby, bony, and scrawny looking. Worn out, dried up glands make it impossible to form flesh and strength. Yet many people who eat less have good firm flesh, normal weight, and are full of life and energy because their glands are now working full force. Formerly the recognized power of fresh organic glands to put on flesh that stays firm, and makes nervous, anemic folks strong and even tempered, was confined to rich people. But now everyone who has tried doctoring with ordinary tonics and medicines can purchase a combination of pure organic glands, phosphates (for the NERVES) and iron (for the blood) for a few cents at any drug store merely asking for Kath. This Kath is known to rebuild exhausted glands without the use of drugs.

Make This Test: First weigh and measure yourself. Next take the small tablets of glands, roots and herbs (as found in Kath). Then weigh and measure yourself every 5 days and continue taking Kath until you are satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. The scientist who has discovered Kath has agreed to supply it with the understanding that if you are not completely satisfied with results the entire purchase price will be refunded by the druggist from whom you buy it.

Today's Talks

THE MULTITUDINOUS PERSONALITY

I looked at a wonderful tree today. There seemed to be something unusually distinct and interesting about every branch and leaf. I had never seen a tree like it.

I studied its beauty for a long time. The graceful winding limbs as they reached and wound their way toward the top made me think of the human being whose personality reaches out so far and seeks to warm everything about it.

It was such a silent study, too. Words would only have confused the wide and deep expression that made that tree so human and inviting.

I have noticed that the great fascination of any fine personality lies chiefly in its silent charm, its unfathomed attractions.

There are some things about all high and noble characters that are never revealed.

True greatness never belittles itself. The tiniest blue flower that specks the green grass under your feet has that something of greatness about it that can never be explained. The greatest inventor or scientist who ever lived could not reproduce it—with all his great knowledge and understanding.

And this minute flower has its own personality even though its small head can scarcely edge its way between two blades of grass.

So it is in all things of innate and animate existence. There is something strange and full of appeal to each.

And you who sometimes seem so unimportant to yourself and to the world keep absorbing as well as radiating.

I removed a wrapper from a new book today. But when I saw what a lovely design was hidden underneath, I put it back so that I might enjoy it. For each so well fitted the beauty of that which was within as the silent all of one who once wrought in noble and sweetened phrases of expression himself.

RECORD SUMMER

Martins Ferry, March 24—A record summer season is anticipated by packet lines on the Ohio river. Wharfmaster A. L. Willis has been informed. He said the lines are making up their schedules for as far ahead as June and July, anticipating a favorable stage of water throughout the spring season. Freight traffic already is quite heavy with every prospect that increased express and parcel post rates will cause the quantity to increase.

PRIMITIVE MAN KNEW VALUE OF DANCING AND MUSIC DELPHIAN SOCIETY LEARNS

"The primitive man knew the value of dancing and music and the pleasure he derived from them became universal," said Professor S. F. Weston, of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, in a talk on "Primitive Man and His Influence on the Ages" before the eXenia Delphian Society at the Parish House, Monday evening.

"All prehistoric peoples had standards of right and wrong," Professor Weston said. "Our morals and religion are only customs and those of the primitive man were the same. The lowest savages of today have customs and rules of right and wrong. Sentiment, sympathy and human affection were human traits of prehistoric man. Awe and mystery that surrounded their rites are still used today."

"The power of fear in the savage ceremonies before history was recorded was recognized then as it is today. They feared an unseen power and as to whether the savages had a true belief depends on our own conception of the right religion."

"Image worship was based on the belief that the spirit had departed the body and must have a resting place, that of the image. Today, the people who consider themselves highly civilized, believe that the spirit leaves the body and finds a happier home. What is the difference between our religion and that of the savages?"

"History is often one-sided, and from books we learn little of the people and their habits but more of their politics. People waste valuable reading time with trashy novels and obtain no cultural values," declared Professor Weston.

"Making an estimate from the distinctive views of the theorists, man lived from 500,000 to 600,000 years ago. What little knowledge we have of him and his habits we have gained from the skulls found in the earth. Skulls are more often found than any other bone because they are the hardest and withstand the years the longest."

"The shape of the skull denotes the mentality and type of the primitive man. The low forehead shows the lack of brain capacity, and the protruding jaw, the aggressive, animal-like appearance."

"The teeth, their size and formation denote the kind of food the prehistoric man existed upon. We know the primitive man had an early knowledge of his outstanding needs. He also knew the arts, such as drawing, pottery and weaving."

"Women were the inventors of weaving. They wove their clothes and household articles from grasses and twigs."

"The reason the primitive man lived in caves is because he had the animal-sense of protection and sought the sheltered nooks during the ice age and the change in the climates of the world.

"The discovery of fire was one of the greatest advances in civilization," Professor Weston declared.

The speaker commended the Delphian Society movement and its organization in Xenia. He said that the local society should have more than 100 members and that the lessons in the advance of the arts was worthy of any city and people. Professor Weston was introduced by Mrs. C. O. Nybladh. After his talk Mrs. Caroline Flickinger told of the plan of the Delphian course of study and its importance as a social and intellectual organization.

"NOT POSSIBLE TO CLASSIFY" BY MACK SAUER

Chilllicothe seems deserted. Photo galleries no longer display prints of snappy lieutenants, barred and spurred. The dull mercury lamp that flickered in a canvas tent, where photos were made while you waited, has gone out. The church rest rooms are unmoored. The postoffice line has shortened. The telegraph office force has dwindled away. The war is over. Chilllicothe is back in civilian clothes.

Over on the camp grounds the barracks and walks lined with whitewashed stones have outlived their usefulness. Scraps of paper and cigarette stubs dot the ground, once kept as clean as a parlor carpet. Teamsters haul the dismantled barracks away, load by load. The call of the bugle echoes from Mt. Logan no more. The guard house is unguarded.

But in Chilllicothe, as in Xenia and every other city or hamlet, the war has left its scars. Empty coat sleeves. Crutches. A stooped, skinny fellow in a fit of coughing. Once trained to fight the Germans. Now back on the old training grounds fighting for life.

The crowds, forgetting the shoulder-patting when the Kaiser was on the run, pass by without noticing the veterans. With them the war is old stuff. Occasionally sentiment is stirred. An express truck at the depot with a flag-draped box, labeled and tagged. One more added to the casualty list. Passersby angle their heads and look serious. Death brings shudders.

By the way, the local American Legion welcomes all ex-service men at any time. You'll find real hospitality. And the latch string is always out.

We often wonder how some of the lads who managed to get furloughs every few weeks are making out with their wives. Are they able to get by with whoppers as they did in the army and thus obtain a few hours liberty?

MRS. HARLEY HOLTON SUGGUMBS MONDAY

Mrs. Vesper Marguerite Holton 19, wife of Harley Holton, passed away at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson in Spring Valley Monday afternoon at 2:50 o'clock.

The young woman had been ill since a week ago last Friday, suffering with tubercular meningitis. She was confined to her bed for a week and her condition became rapidly worse. Her husband has been in ill health for some time and is in a serious condition.

Mrs. Holton was born in Spring Valley, September 15, 1906 and lived all her life in that village. Her marriage took place two years ago September 16, last. She had been employed as a clerk in the Moser Shoe Store, in this city.

Surviving are her husband, parents, one brother, Granville Benson and one sister, Miss Ruth Benson, both at home.

Mrs. Holton was a member of the Spring Valley Friends Church and of the Ladies Aid Society of that church and of the Spring Valley D. of A. Lodge.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, the friends to meet at the Benson home at 1:30 o'clock, and at the Spring Valley Friends Church at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Spring Valley cemetery.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

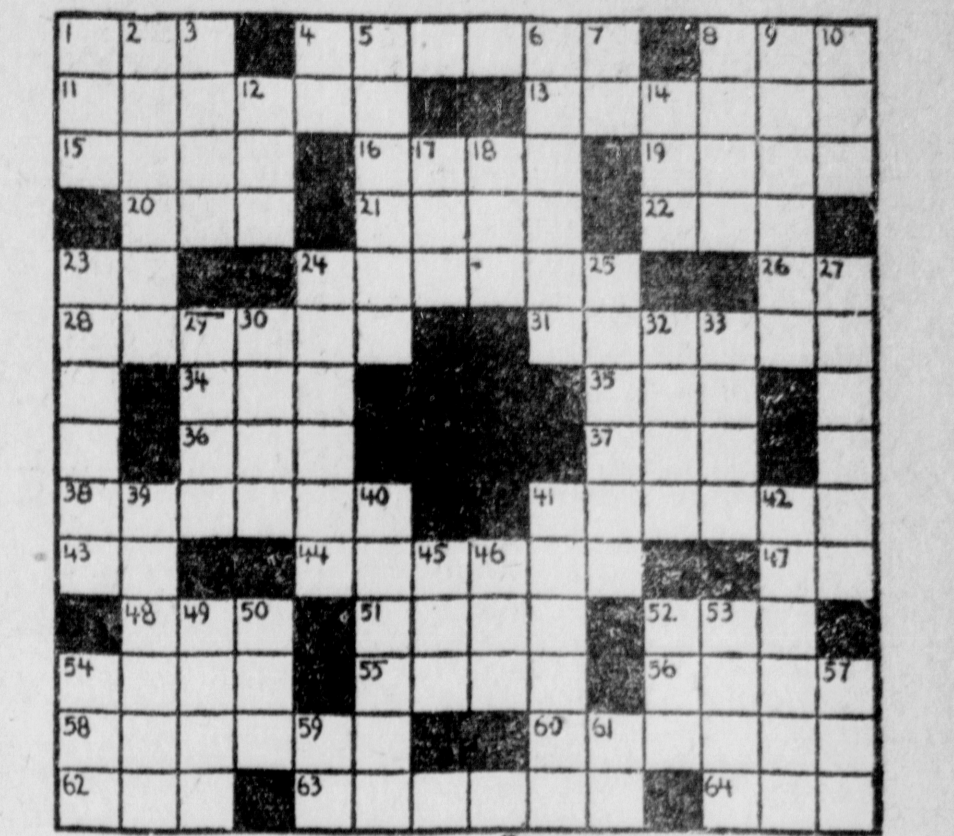

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

XENIANS ATTEND STROOP FUNERAL

Funeral services for William G. Strop, 64, prominent Dayton business man, and at one time general manager of the American Cigar Company Xenia Stemmery, who died Friday afternoon at his home in Dayton were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence.

Mr. Strop was instrumental in establishing the branch factory in Xenia together with P. H. Flynn Xenia shoe manufacturer, and was prominently known throughout the Miami Valley.

He first became identified with the Big Four Railroad at Gallon, and later took charge of the mill at Trebin station, three miles west of Xenia, when his family moved there. At that time he was 18 years of age.

P. H. Flynn, and Watt Frame, office manager of the Xenia Stemmery, attended the funeral services Tuesday morning.

ATTACKS MAYOR

BRINGING UP FATHER

One Wife on Approval by VIOLET DARE

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

CYNTHIA LELAND'S husband, Jim, has gone to Honolulu shortly after their marriage, following a misunderstanding with his wife, and has taken his mother with him, leaving Cynthia to face the disapproval of her sister-in-law, LOUELLA, and all her world. Cynthia turns to

CECILE MALCOLM, leader of the town's gayest set, and accepts the friendship of NOEL GARDNER, the town's black sheep, going with them to a mid-winter house party at Cecile's mountain cabin.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XLV—A NEW FRIEND

AS CYNTHIA finished her supper her new-found friend turned to her.

"Now, your husband probably won't be able to see you until very late, and would just know you then, and that's all," he told her. "Don't you think it would be wise for you to go to a hotel, and then come back early tomorrow morning? We can find out how he is just before you go, and you'll have no cause to worry. You must have had a long journey, and surely you need a rest."

"Well—if you think best," she answered slowly. "I wonder—could you find out for me if there's anyone else here with him—that is, anyone who has been interested. I—well, to tell you the truth, I don't know whether my mother-in-law is here or not, and I'd like to know."

"Surely. While you put on your hat and cloak I'll see his nurse and find out for you."

He returned a few moments later. "Your husband came here alone, and there has been no one inquiring for him," he told her. "He was most anxious to see you, but the doctor felt that an immediate operation was necessary. He had an attack of appendicitis, you see, and while there was no danger, Doctor Abbott didn't want to wait. Your husband wanted to wait until you came, but the nurse said that today he received a letter, and after reading it said that you wouldn't be here, and that there was no further reason for delay."

Cynthia's brow puckered in bewilderment. What letter could that be? Surely not the one in which she had written him that she wanted to leave him for Noel Gardner. He must have had that several days ago. Unless—perhaps there had been a delay.

"Oh, I wish I could see him!" she exclaimed. "But, of course, it's better to wait."

She went downstairs to the doctor, out to his car, and sat quietly while he drove her downtown and to one of the big hotels.

"I used to live here, perhaps you'd like me to make arrangements for you?" he asked. Cynthia nodded without speaking. She felt so tired that it was an effort even to think, to try to do anything for herself seemed out of the question. She was breakfasting alone in the huge dining-room the next morning when a page came to her with word that Doctor Hall was calling.

"Oh, ask him to come in here," she exclaimed. Even after their brief acquaintance of the night before he seemed an old friend. She held out her hand to him eagerly.

"I came to see if I couldn't drive you up to the hospital," he told her. "But don't hurry through your breakfast. I'll have some coffee with you if I may."

Cynthia was glad to have him there. He talked to her of the beauties of San Francisco, as eager in his praise of his native city as most Californians are, and although she was thinking of Jim rather than of what the doctor was saying she managed to seem attentive at least.

She was surprised at her own feeling about Jim. She had thought she loved him, and then that she didn't. She had thought she loved

Dr. Hall was calling.

Noel Gardner. But this new emotion was quite different from the others. The thought that she might have lost Jim had kept her awake all night. Without Jim life would be a great blank space, having no reason.

She had considered leaving Jim when she thought that he no longer cared for her. But she knew not that in her heart she had never really faced that possibility. She had never thought that she would have to go through life without him.

"Oh, are you sure he's going to get along all right?" she cried, breaking into the middle of one of Doctor Hall's sentences. Then, guiltily: "My husband, I mean. I can't help being worried about him."

"Absolutely, unless there have been unexpected developments. He'll be wretched for a few days, of course, but then he'll feel fine. You're in a hurry to get to him, aren't you? All right, let's start."

Cynthia tried to be good company as they rode along, but her thoughts were all with Jim. What letter had he received that made him think she was not coming to San Francisco in response to his telegram? And how could she convince him that she didn't want to leave him?
